

Jean Oyler is the Division Director for Business Development in the Small Business Governmentwide Acquisition Contracts Center, U. S. General Services Administration in Kansas City, Missouri.

Jean oversees Center operations including communications, customer and industry relations, outreach and training. Jean and her staff of business development specialists are responsible for educating federal customers in the proper use of the contracts as well as assisting contractors in marketing their contract. Her efforts in promoting small business have been recognized by the Offices of Small Business Utilization within GSA, U.S. Department of Interior, U.S. Department of Health & Human Services and U.S. Department of Agriculture.

Prior to GSA, Jean served as Contracting Officer's Representative for information technology software and services contracts at the U.S. Department of Agriculture. Her 20+ years of federal service also led her to employment with the Defense Finance and Accounting Service, U.S. Army Corps of Engineers and the 66th Military Intelligence Group, U.S. Army European Command in Munich, Germany.

Jean holds a BA in Business and Management from the University of Maryland, University College and holds a Master's Certificate in Project Management from George Washington University.